

Praise Him in the noontime!

"Midday" takes place in the Fellowship Hall October 4

Have you heard about our newest worship opportunity, called Midday? Midday is a service that takes place on the first Wednesday of each month around noon. You are invited to join us in the Fellowship Hall for a time of singing, prayer, scripture, and devotion. This monthly service also includes lunch that will be served beginning at 11:45 a.m.

The Midday service is modeled after Lenten Lunches and features songs, hymns, and acts of praise from a variety of worship styles so everyone might find connection and community. We have a time of prayer for one another, hear from the scriptures, and enjoy a short sermon each week. Lunch will be provided, and my hope is that all will come for an inspiring hour of worship.

Our recent sermon series has challenged us to slow down and find time for God amidst our busy routines. My hope is that this service could be a resource to help you do just that. Whether you are on your lunch break, heading downtown for a meeting, looking for some good food, or wanting to fellowship with friends, you are invited to join us for Midday.

I pray that this service will offer a pause in your schedule for you to hear from God and be inspired to share His love with all you meet. Hope to see you October 4.

Complete in Him,

Matt Langford
