

WORSHIP, SKIS, AND COMMUNITY

Youth retreat in North Carolina brings new skills, adventure, bonding, and spiritual growth to our teens

This past weekend our youth took a trip to Beech Mountain, North Carolina, for a ski retreat. Our students had an awesome time learning how to ski, playing games, and falling down the mountain! We skied all day on Saturday and Sunday with worship sessions every night led by Pastor Liz. A special shout out to Henry Ivey who volunteered to help drive the 10-hour trip and taught some of our students how to ski! This trip was a great experience for the students to grow closer to each other and to our church leaders. We are one big family and we had a lot of fun!

God Bless,
Robbie Amunds, Youth Ministry Director
